

Do you want to explore Philadelphia's most exciting attractions?
Do you want to learn more about Jewish life on campus?
Do you want to go into NSO already knowing a group of Freshmen?

Penn Hillel NSO 2011

Sign up today for the Penn Hillel Pre-Orientation FreshMeet Retreat!

Tuesday, August 30th

Welcome Activities

Rittenhouse Square

Upscale shopping and dining surrounding a beautiful urban park

South Street

An area of Philly known for its colorful and eclectic personality

Group Activities

An Iron Chef competition and a Jewish-themed Jeopardy game...

Overnight at the Embassy Suites

Center City - 1776 Benjamin Franklin Parkway

- The cost of the retreat is $50, plus you may incur an additional charge for early move-in.
- All food provided will be Kosher
- Contact us at pennfreshmen@gmail.com

For more information about New Student Orientation activities at Penn Hillel go to www.pennhillel.org

Wednesday, August 31st

The National Museum of American Jewish History

A brand new center housing exhibitions on Jewish life throughout our nation's history

Lunch at Independence Park

A falafel picnic overlooking iconic American symbols such as the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall

Reading Terminal Market

A market that contains the greatest volume and variety of food you'll ever see under one roof

Hillel Dessert Reception

Join other new students and their families for treats, mingling, and entertainment by Penn's Premiere Jewish a cappella group, the Shabbatones

Limited Spots Available!

Apply today at: pennhillel.org and click on FreshMeet Retreat.

Deadline is July 27, 2011

